AMUSEMENTS.

COMING TO TOWN.

To mention Peck's Bad Boy to a boy is the next best thing to telling him that a circus is coming to town. You will all, whether young or not, have the opportunity of seeing that frolicsome youth disporting himself and making life a burden for all who come in contact with him. He will illustrate new inventions in practical jokes, and amuse and entertain you all in many ways too numerous to mention. His girl, his Pa, his Ma, and Schultz the Grocer and Duffy the Policeman, and a lot of other folks are coming with him, and will be at the Grand to-night.
Prices, 25, 35 and 50 cents.

—Don't forget the engagement at the Grand, on Friday, Oct. 3d, of Quinlan & Wall's Great Minstrels. Be sure and see the old Paris favorite, Guv. Bowen, in his songs and dances. He has a host of friends in Paris, who will give him an ovation.

—A story that is not decrepit through old age, is told by Barry Gray, of the Casey's Troubles Company and concerns a Yorkshire farmer, who was asked to the funeral of a neighbor's third wife.
His own wife was surprised, and, upon being asked for a reason, he said:

"Well, the see lass, it makes a chap feel a bit awkward like to be allus accepting other folks civilities when he never has nowt o' t' soart of his own to ax' em back to."

ter, were married yesterday afternoon by Elder J. S. Sweeney.

—The marriage of Miss Margaret Brent and Mr. Joseph Atkins, of Washington City, was quietly celebrated at noon yesterday at the home of the bride's mother in Fayette county. The couple will go abroad for their wedding trip. Mr. Atkins is a distinguished lawyer, and a widower with two children. There is said to be a pretty romance connected with this marriage.
Mr. Atkins was graduated from Bethany College, West Virginia, and while there his fiancée was also a student of the college and he was a devoted but unsuccessful suitor. In the years until the renewal of the suit with happier results, they had not met each other. He is the nephew of Rev. W. K. Pendleton, the former President of Bethany College.

—Mr. Robert Turner and Miss Iva Moreland, both of Ruddles Mills, this county, were married in Cythiana, last

Interurban Railway.

In speaking of the proposed interurban railway connecting Lexington and Paris, President Younger Alexander of the company, authorizes the statement which is intended to answer the inquiries of all those who are anxious to know its status of the move on the project:

"You may say for my company, that we will build the line to Paris this fall and winter. We have everything in good shape. I think we will begin breaking ground in fifteen days. We have our rails bought and delivery guaranteed for December. We will push the work and I hope for the Paris line to be in operation early next year.
Our experiment to Georgetown has been satisfactory and we have utmost faith in interurban properties in the blue grass. You may tell our friends, the public, that we will have the line to Paris running as quickly as money can make in run. We are in the business for the business."

Summer Corsets.

Now is the season when a light, cool corset is appreciated. Not only must the corset be light, but the model must be spotless, and can only be free from rust stains by being absolutely proof against perspiration. We guarantee the

Warner Bros. Corsets

to be absolutely Rust Proof, and if after continuous wear in the warmest temperature a corset branded "Warner's Rust Proof" becomes spotted or stained the daintiest underlinen, the wearer is entitled to a new corset or money refunded.

The qualities and models are too varied to give a definite description of each; and they come in light, soft batistes and dainty Summer nets. Each model is ornate with laces and soft ribbon corresponding to the quality of material.
